The NCASF Executive Committee has selected an advisory board to advise and council the NCASF. With fourteen vacancies present on the advisory committee, their nominees center around minority spokespeople, television and movie personalities, left winged political advocates and Communist sympathizers. Their diversified list consists of individuals willing to council and if need be financially assist the NCASF while charismatically broadening its appeal, shielding any reference to Communism. //

180 DAY PROGRESS LETTER

I. Aims of the Organization

The National Council of American Soviet Friendship (NCASF) was founded in 1943 by the Communist Party of the United States (CPUSA) and has as its primary overt purpose to advance and promote cultural and educational enhancement, amity, secure and peaceful relations between the United States and the Soviet Union. The CPUSA is an arm of the International Communist Movement dominated by the Soviet Union. The NCASF advocates working for world peace, believing that understanding, cooperation and peaceful co-existence through detente creates the foundation for strengthened world peace while acting as the chief safeguard against atomic destruction. In actuality, the CPUSA directs the activities of the NCASF behind the facade of being independent of Soviet dictation, claiming interest only in developing cultural and intellectual coexistence between the United States and the Soviet Union.
